Mary C. Fiumara, LCSW will be presenting.

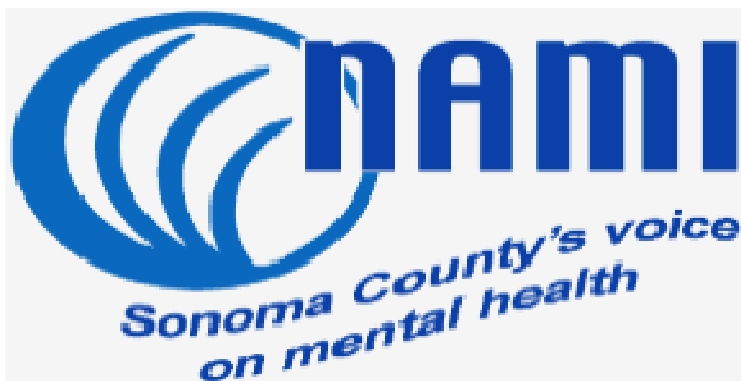

Mary has been working with eating disorder clients and their families since 1985 when she was part of the original staff of the Renfrew Center in Philadelphia, PA. She developed and implemented an eating disorders track at KidsPeace Hospital where she supervised a treatment team on an adolescent psychiatric unit. She developed and managed an intensive outpatient program in for children age 6-19. She has facilitated workshops on eating disorder awareness and prevention at organizations, universities and businesses.

Currently, Mary is a manager at a residential facility that treats people with persistent mental illness. She is on staff and the Chair of the Education Series of EDRS (Eating Disorders Recovery Services).

Mary also has a private practice in Santa Rosa, specializing in the treatment of eating disorders and women's issues.
